2023-2024 Pioneers Oral History Project

Claude Cormier, FASLA

Founding partner of CCxA, landscape architect Claude Cormier was the creative force behind some of Canada’s most beloved, joyous, and critically acclaimed public spaces. He died at his Montréal, Québec, home on September 15, 2023. Four weeks before his passing, TCLF spent a week with Claude at his studio, home and visiting his built work.

2023 Sponsorship Opportunities: The Cultural Landscape Foundation Pioneers of Landscape Design® Oral History Projects

Pioneers oral histories are an ever-growing, award-winning series of videotaped first-person interviews with significant practitioners. Now featuring eighteen oral histories, the series examines each designer’s personal and professional history, their overall design philosophy, and how that approach was carried out in their most emblematic projects. The richly edited video segments include never-before-seen archival footage, new photography, and on-location videography.

This year’s oral histories include:

- The late Claude Cormier, FASLA

Commensurate with sponsorship level, benefits include recognition on project’s web page, recognition on project launch e-blasts and press release, and more.

About Us

The Cultural Landscape Foundation (TCLF) is a Washington, D.C.-based non-profit founded in 1998 to connect people to places. TCLF educates and engages the public to make our shared landscape heritage more visible, identify its value, and empower its stewards. Through its website, publishing, lectures, and other events, TCLF broadens support and understanding for cultural landscapes. TCLF is also home to the Cornelia Hahn Oberlander International Landscape Architecture Prize.
